“ Growing up my second home was my aunt carolyns and uncle mikes. Their 2 oldest children, johnny and gerhonda and i were inseparable. Those were the years that our extended family aunts, uncles, cousins, grandpa etc. Would all go camping and have a family reunion every year at current river. The summer of 1976 sticks with me the most lol I'm sure aunt Carolyn remembers the flood and my dad and the iron skillet and Coleman cooler. O what a reunion. I also remember spending one of many nights with them and this night in particular was a thunderstorm and I saw my first spirit/ ghost whatever you want to call it and waking them up absolutely freaked out and they told me it was my uncle Mike grandmother and that the house they were living in used to be here. If my memory serves me correctly, she had passed away in that house. Lol shop many wonderful memories of our families. Uncle Mike was one of a kind. RIP Uncle Mike. You are loved and missed.
