

Michael Schumaker

March 5, 1956 - March 27, 2022

Michael Edward Schumaker, 66, of Murphysboro was born March 5, 1956, in Carbondale, IL to Charles and Anna Bernice (Schuster) Schumaker.

He journeyed to his heavenly home March 27, 2022.

He was a 1974 MTHS graduate and enlisted in the United States Air Force prior to his graduation. He was trained as a munitions and weapons maintenance specialist. Music was a big part of his life and he enjoyed working as a sound engineer for local bands. He attended Grace Baptist Church and was a very faithful Christian.

Survivors include a brother, Allen (Carolyn) Schumaker of Scott City, MO, a sister, Diana (Tim) Pryer of Sedona AZ, a niece Liz Mason of St. Louis, MO, nephew Sam (Kara) Schumaker and their 3 children of Scott City, MO, aunts, an uncle, many cousins, friends, and many furry, four-legged friends. Michael was a very kind, gentle, generous soul who touched many lives.

He is preceded in death by his parents, many aunts and uncles, and his niece's husband, Craig Mason.

According to his wishes he was cremated, and there will be no service.

In lieu of flowers memorials can be sent to Grace Baptist Church, 38 Old Church Rd. Murphysboro, IL, 62966, Jackson County Humane Society or any other animal welfare organization. The best way to honor Michael's memory is to play your favorite music and crank it up!

“ *Allen and Diana,
I am so very sad that Michael is gone. He truly was one of a kind and I have so many memories of crazy times with him. When I think of growing up in Murphysboro, his face always comes to mind first.
Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs your way.*

*So sorry for your loss,

“ Mike and I became good friends in kindergarten when he followed me home from school one day. I remember seeing him off for the Air Force and writing letters to each other while he was in service. Lost contact with him when he was discharged but never stopped thinking about him. My deepest condolences to the family.
