“ I was privileged to have Myra as my very dear friend while attending high school at Mound City. She was always so kind and friendly and always smiling. Heaven's gain is our loss but we have the assurance of seeing Myra again when the Lord calls us home. Goodbye dear friend till we meet again. Prayers are with her family as this sad time. I can still see Myra Jean, as she would be waiting to be picked by our high school bus coming from Olmsted, going to Mound City, I remember thinking what a beautiful girl, and she grew into the most beautiful, awesome woman that is so loved by family and friends, she will be truly missed

Myra was such a wonderful, loving, caring lady in every way who I was fortunate enough to know most of my life. The last time I saw her was right before my mother's funeral when she brought me a large zip lock bag full of pictures of my family which she had accumulated through the years. I appreciated that so much that when I hear her name or think of her I immediately think of all the pictures I have now because of her thoughtfulness. Thank you, Myra for being you.
