“ When my husband, Wayne, and I were married in October 1971, we were fortunate enough to rent a small mobile home from Nila and J. Lester. We could not have found better landlords anywhere!! They were both great, caring people and I am sure Nila will be greatly missed by friends and family. I am so sorry for your loss of this wonderful lady.

“ My prayers are with all the family. My dear Aunt Mae, I was shocked and saddened to hear the news just a few hours after I spoke with you to tell you I would be visiting you the next morning. But I was also happy that we were able to talk and that you passed peacefully in your sleep. Until we meet again. Please save me a good seat.
Love you always. Tony
