“ I can't begin to even say how much I loved this woman. I was only 8yrs old when I met her through my best friend, Micki when we were kids. She had the most beautiful heart I've ever known. She became my second mother to both my brother Rick and I. We met in Tampa Fl 1967-68 untill they moved to Lake Wales, by God grace my brother and I would end up there too..at that time they were always known as, Mr.& Mrs. Winn. They treated us and raised us as if we were their own. It was here my brother and I learned about God, Family, Chores, it was a structured life. A good life. We went to school, Lake Wales High. After our work was done, off to the lake we would go. She gave us unconditional love. She would read the bible with us and teach us about Jesus. It was Norma who lead me to the Lord with my first born son to have him dedicated to the Lord at Dundee Assembly of God. There's so many beautiful things this woman gave me. She gave me Council, Wisdom, Understanding, but most importantly she gave me unconditional love. She was truly one of God's most precious Angeles He ever placed on this earth and I'm eternally greatful and blessed to have known her..I love you Norma Winn, and I hope you dance.
