IN MEMORY OF:

Norman Lerner

Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – EGYPTIAN MEMORIAL GARDENS

3208 South Park Avenue, Energy, Illinois

Norman Lerner, 97, passed away on Tuesday, November 12, 2024 at his home in Marion, IL. Norman was born October 30, 1927 in Brooklyn, New York. He leaves behind his wife, Ina, a son and daughter-in-law, as well as two grandchildren. Norman and Ina were married 69 ½ years.

Norman was a member of the United States Army, serving a tour in Korea. His love of photography grew into a noted career as a photojournalist and a fashion photographer in New York City from the 1950s to 1970s. His work in fashion was seen monthly in popular magazines such as Glamour and GQ, as well as other publications. In 1965, he created the Fashion Photography Degree Program at The Fashion Institute of Technology in New York, serving as founder and chair.

His work as a photojournalist encompassed the New York scene and was exhibited nationally in print as well as on news and talk shows such as NBC's The Today Show. Some of his work is now part of permanent collections at several American Museums such as the Museum of Modern Art in New York, Santa Barbara Museum, etc.

In 2023, his work "The Window People" and "New York Moments" became permanent collections in the Jewish Museum of NY. Much of his work can still be viewed online.

Although he is no longer with us, his professional legacy will continue on as an inspiration to many aspiring photographers.

There will be no services at this time.

The Cremation of Norman Lerner has been personally handled by the staff of Crain Funeral Home.

Crain Funeral Home, Energy, Illinois is in charge of funeral arrangements.
