“ Olive was my "Bingo Buddy," for the past 7 years. I met her at Marion Knights of Columbus, playing Bingo and we usually sat together. Olive believed in saying just exactly what was on her mind, but that was part of her charm! Someone else would holler "Bingo!" and she'd get all frustrated and mad! She'd say loud enough for everybody to hear, "Well I don't appreciate it! We're here all the time, and we've got a right to win sometimes, too! " I'd take her grocery shopping with me, bring her home, and carry her bags in, for her. She went to Bingo sometimes with me and heron too and we'd go out to eat, together. She'd tell me about her mama immigrating here from France, (with her brother). as a young woman. She told me about her husband, Ralph, and her five sons, and about the little dog that she and Ralph loved, so much! She also told me about her daddy losing his life, in a coal mining disaster, right around Christmas time. So sad!

You are good friend, Olive! I will miss you very much, and will never forget you!
