“ For me, 1972 was a new start, with nothing but good years that followed . I admired this family. Grandparents, brothers, & sisters, aunts/uncles, nephews & cousins living and even working, on the same block. Nextdoor neighbors, with others just a few blocks away. Downtown with its theater, stores and bus stops was only two blocks away. Something rarely found or seen today. There were countless days and hours of childhood that were spent playing with Pats Daughter's, Audrey & Nancy. Countless trips to St. Louis for ballgames or boat rides. It was the beginning of a life long friendship that's lasted over 50 years! These were the memories and experiences that shaped me. I certainly hope we're all together on the other side.
