“ Pat, was a wonderful man, He was my best friend for over 32 years. I am going to miss him with all my heart. For the last 20 years it has been a battle between him and cancer. The cancer finally won but I have never heard of a person fight as long and as hard as Pat, did. He is finally out of his pain. And yet through it all he was the best husband, father and grandpa and best friend anyone could ask for. Everyone is invited to a celebration of life for Pat, If you knew Pat please come and toast to him and say a few words/ memories about you and Pat. To all our friends and family Thank You so much for all your support and kindness throughout the this journey with up. All my love P. Howard Bullock I am going to miss you Jean Bullock
