“ I have so many memories of going over to grammas and her always having coloring books and crayons ready for me. :) She knew how much I loved coloring and drawing at a young age. It didn't matter how many people came over, she always made it feel like there was room for everyone. During the holidays, everybody was welcome. The holidays I remember spending with her and my family at her house were nothing like they can be now... there was enough food for absolutely ANYONE who wanted to come over. She never complained about the amount of food she cooked or how many people were in her home. All I can remember is just .. kindness, and love, and generosity. And genuinely trying to make you feel welcome. This was her heart. Without this LOVELY, INCREDIBLE woman, so many of us including me would not even exist. I can only pray that we all continue carrying out her legacy of kindness and generosity. I hope I make her proud. I love you always and forever Grandma Casper. <3

Forever,
your great granddaughter,
