Jeff, and family so sorry to hear of the passing of Paul. I admired both of your parents so very much. We became friends when my then husband Bob Gott and Paul worked together as carpenters. We had so much respect for him and know you have a lot of beautiful memories. RIP dear Paul. You are in my prayers.

I was Paul's barber for several years. I loved when he came in for a haircut because he was so interesting to talk to and we were on the same page about many topics. I said goodbye to him the last week of February when I retired, got married and moved to Alabama. My sympathy to his family and friends. He was one extraordinary, great man.
