“ Paula was a great friend. My most fond memory of Paula was when she bought a shiny silver convertible car in the late 80's or early 90's. She was so proud of that car. I also remember when she was teaching nurses in Sikeston. She tried very hard to make sure each student succeeded.

I had not seen Paula in many years. As I was sitting by my father's bedside in his last hours, at The Lutheran Home, she came to visit. She shared that she had been overseeing his care for many months. It was a great comfort to know she had been there, even though I had no idea.

Last year when my mother passed away very suddenly she was able to join us for dinner. Even though it had been years since we had an extended conversation, it still felt like yesterday. To me that is what true friends are about.

Paula had more than her fair share of tragedy in her life. However, she was always able to dig deep, and keep giving to others. She was a beautiful, compassionate person.

I pray that God holds her family in His hands during this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Tamara (Holland) Sondgeroth*
