Saying goodbye to a special cousin is extremely difficult, especially when you were also childhood BEST friends. So grateful that I was able to go see her in July when I was there and we could laugh, joke and I could tell her that I love her! No more pain, she is finally FREE! She will always occupy a space in my heart! 💔

Family, she is resting. I'm so sorry for your loss. I nicknamed her "Peggatha" which always made her and Mother Vann smile. She called me "Sister." We shared so many talks, good times and laughs over the years. My Peggatha, always spoke her mind, which makes me smile at some of the things she would say. I loved that about her! Peggy liked the finer things in life and worked hard to have them. She devoted her life to caring for her children and loving ones near to her heart. (Peggy, please forgive me for being close in distance and not visiting you. I wanted you safe and chose not to see you in person). My fondest memories were at the salon and later visits with you and bringing you gifts, sharing pictures and laughs. You know that I love you sis and always will. Now that you have transitioned to peace....I can hear Mother Vann now saying "Here comes Peggy!" (smile). Rest on my sister, my Peggatha!
