

Ralph C. Hawley

August 28, 1935 - June 3, 2011

Ralph C. Hawley, 75, of Murphysboro, Illinois and formerly of Union City, Pennsylvania, passed away at 10:02 p.m. Friday, June 3, 2011, at Memorial Hospital in Carbondale, Illinois.

Ralph was born on August 28, 1935, in Waterford, Pennsylvania, to Roy Hawley and Mabel (Bidwell) Hawley.

Mr. Hawley had worked for a total of forty six years at the Penn Brass and Copper Company in Erie, PA, and at Penn-Aluminum in Murphysboro, where he retired as a foreman.

He was an avid craftsman and had made different items that were auctioned off at the Sallie Logan Library. He also enjoyed fishing.

Ralph married Mildred Chunderlek on March 3, 1956, in Union City, Pennsylvania, and she survives of Murphysboro.

Other survivors include four children Cheryl Capela and her husband Norman Capela and Ronald Hawley and his wife Leigh Hawley, all of Union City, PA, Leonard Hawley of Sedalia, MO, and Regina Pieron and her fiancée Andy Evans of Murphysboro; seven grandchildren Chip Capela, Jeremy Capela, Jason Capela, Brandy Hawley, Krystal Hawley, Casey Pierson and Jaime Evans;

two great grandchildren Kaitlyn Capela and Trevin Capela;

two brothers Jim Hawley and Keith Hawley;

and three sisters Sally Hawley, Gloria Hawley and Anna Appleby.

He was preceded in death by four brothers Mike, Paul, Dale and Larry Hawley and his parents.

His body was cremated and there will be private services. Pettett Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Ralph C. Hawley

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM