“ Mr Sasseen was our neighbor growing up. Such a nice person. He would us kids outside and call us over to the fence to give lil whistles he would make, or apples and produce from his garden he was so proud of. I know we were roudy and loud and he did have to did have fuss at us from time to time. But we loved him and Ms Mandy.

“ So sorry, we loved Ed and Mandy. My boys always enjoyed seeing him when we would stop by, he would always have something for them and would play with them. Mrs. Mandy would say he was just a big kid himself. I'm sure there will be quite the reunion with him and Mrs. Mandy.

I remember Mr. & Mrs. Sasseen & their children - Edward, Edwin & Joan. And remember sweet Mandy. All of them - the Sasseens & the Sutterfields - are very special people. I know there was a great reunion in Heaven when Ed was once again with his beloved Mandy. They were always a loving couple. Ed will always be missed by everyone who knew him. “ I worked for him while in high school at Jimmy’s IGA in Mound City wrapping meat. He was one of the nicest person’s I ever worked for. We shared our love of music.

A wonderful man. Very smart, honest as the day is long, never a cross word, I learned a lot from him about meat. Whe I am lucky enough to get a deer, I make sausage and can attribute this knowledge that I learned from him. He has a lasting effect on me and many others.

Ed was such a fine Christian man. He attended the same church as Craig and me for quite awhile. He loved God, family and music. I know he has now joined his wife in Heaven.
