“ Ellen Lindsey and Meredith I am so sorry what you were going through right now your father loved you all very much and I knew he was proud of you it's a shame that his grandchildren will grow up not being around him. If you went to grade school in high school with us you know that Randon Tracy and I were together all the time. We had fun together and stick up for each other and got pissed at each other!! Brandon was kind and funny and a real smartass!!! He could make you laugh one minute and get pissed at him the next minute !! At the class reunion about five years back. We talked ,!cut up with each other.No matter what I will always love you!!

“ I extend my prayers to Randon's family for comfort and peace. So many fond memories of him. I met Randon in the early 80's. I trained with him in my EMT days. I learned to dispatch under him. We became great friends. We laughed a lot and just had a good time. I knew Ellen as well. I never met his daughters, just know my prayers are with you. Such a wonderful and kind man I am proud to have known him ❤️🕊️
