

Raymond A. McRoberts

February 16, 1961 - January 23, 2008

Raymond A. McRoberts, age 46, formerly of Murphysboro, passed away at 5:05 p.m. Wednesday, January 23, 2008, at Hospice of Palms of Pasadena Hospital in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Raymond was born on February 16, 1961, in Murphysboro, Illinois, to Lloyd "Mac" McRoberts, Sr. and Gloria (Borchelt) McRoberts Hopkins.

Mr. McRoberts was Baptist by faith. He loved traveling and sailing and being with his friends and family.

Raymond had went through basic training in the U.S. Navy in San Diego.

His pride and joy were his two dogs Baron and Bentley.

He is survived by his mother and step-father Gloria McRoberts Hopkins and Odes Hopkins of Murphysboro;

one sister Marcia Chew and husband Larry Chew of Carterville, and one brother Greg McRoberts of Murphysboro;

one niece Michelle Templeton and husband Chris Templeton, five nephews Austin Chew, David McRoberts and wife Kim McRoberts, Scott McRoberts,

Nick McRoberts, and Daniel McRoberts;

two great-nieces and two great-nephews Hope Templeton, Cody Templeton, Kaitlin McRoberts, and Javen McRoberts;

one aunt Kay Williams of Herrin and several cousins;

He had numerous friends in St. Petersburg who will miss him dearly, especially Donnie Engle, Bob Porher, Bryan Mlika, Daniel Zahorik, Dave Holland, Mike Cox, Toni Bolivia, Warren Garland.

Raymond was preceded in death by his father and two brothers Larry McRoberts and Lloyd McRoberts, Jr.

Tribute Wall

“ Raymond A. McRoberts

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ I went through basic training with Raymond. I will always remember his easy laugh and great smile. You are gone, but not forgotten Raymond.

Bobby Jett - January 02, 2017 at 02:26 PM

“ I went through basic training with Raymond. I will always remember his easy laugh and great smile. You are gone, but not forgotten Raymond.

Bobby Jett - January 02, 2017 at 02:26 PM

“ I went through basic training with Raymond. I will always remember his easy laugh and great smile. You are gone, but not forgotten Raymond.

Bobby Jett - January 02, 2017 at 02:25 PM

BJ

“ I went through basic training with Raymond. I will always remember his easy laugh and great smile. You are gone, but not forgotten Raymond.

Bobby Jett - January 02, 2017 at 02:24 PM