“ I only saw Rhea when Ron and I went to the McKinney Reunions. I would always seek her out because she was such a happy person and made everything around her fun. She was my favorite sister-in-law. When we said our good byes I never dreamed it would be the last time. My sweet Ron is gone now too and the world will never be the happy place it was when these two wonderful people were here. Rhea, you are blessed.

“ Reah you were a Blessing & joy that crossed my path in life. For this & you. I am Thankful. Along with you my family friend. I will miss your many talents from sewing something from nothing than image you had in mind. To cooking items, such as Turtle . That tasted like Sunday roast beef. LJ/Christi/Bill & Brian. You will never have to go any further but within yourselves. To feel & be with your Mom & her love. May it be what she taught or instilled in you. Or a simple phrase or action. To Reah's grandbabies. You were a SPECIAL JOY in her life. And she loved you all dearly. To Leah you both came into this world as one. And will remain as one until you meet again. To Senior my heart aches & breaks for you. Yet I smile at the long & loving marriage. You two shared together. Reah for the trials & tribulation you may have had on Earth. You persevered & loved threw it. For this I know you rest on silver lined cloud in Heaven. Rest In Peace my family friend. Love "Mee"

“Kathy and I met the McKinney family a long time ago when Bill, Chris Nd Larry were just children and Big Larry was just returning from Military service. At that time we lived in Murphysboro and Kathy and I were adopted as Uncle and Aunt. Since then we got to know the children as our own and then Brian was born. Reah was a very loving mother and we have wonderful memories that we will treasure forever.

WE love you Reah and will forever hold you in our hearts.

“My momma was the best person ever. She never turned away a soul. You came to our house, you where treated like family. She made everyone feel like they belonged. And she raised her kids to Be caring and compassionate, to try and see the good in everything. I love and miss you dearly I know your up in heaven sewing up torn or ripped Angel wings or making blankets from clouds. Enjoy your peace momma.
