“ I have so many fond memories of Dick I really don't know where to start and could probably write a book with all them. Dick was a good Christian man even though like most of us he had some non Christ like moments. He had a temper, could yell and curse you over nothing, could be unforgiving, etc. and at the same time give you the shirt off his back, if you needed it. During my 20 years in Southern IL, Dick and Linda along with Jana (now deceased) and I were almost inseparable. I am so sorry I will be unable to attend his funeral. Rest in piece brother and I will see you on the other side.
