“ When you first came into my life I thought you would be gone like the rest ,but you didn't ,you was always there . You was my step dad but more!

You did more for me than I can put in words ,you showed me if you truly love somebody you stand by them ,you didn't have to do things you did for me like mow my 2 acres of yard when my mower broke down when I was a single mom with a push mower! Or come pick the kids up to take them fishing etc... or when I would just pop in and you was frying fish and you knew I loved fish ,you would send me home with a mess of fish ,so many memories that I will not ever forget of you . Love you Bob I know your up there fishing that golden that you so deserve ❤️

“ He's my grandpa. I remember we used to go dancing and fishing together. And I remember all the stories we used to tell each other. And I remember the talks we've had and how we used to go on at each other and messing with my grandma. I miss him so much. He was like my best friend. I love you papa, I hope you have fun up there fishing the golden pond. I miss you.
