“ Even though we've known this day would come sooner rather than later it still doesn't make it any easier. You're my best friend. You've always been there for me when I needed you and even though we didn't always agree by the end of the conversation you'd finally admit I was right, we had SO many laughs every single conversation we would laugh because you were so damn goofy all of the time, Kendall is the same way he just wants to make people smile. He would check up on me even when he was at his worst. I'd make sure he had eaten that day and he would follow with "how are you doing". I love you so much Robert. And I will make sure Kendall is always reminded of all the memories we've made. Although i already miss you so much, I would be selfish to wish you were still here with us because I know you were in so much pain and you faught so hard just to stay for Kendall and I and I will forever be thankful for that. Be with Jesus and your gma and GPA. I know you are looking down at us and happy you can see us again. RIP Robert.
