“ My Grandpa was one of the most caring individuals I know. He was always young at heart and extremely loving with his family. As an adult, I got the pleasure to stay with my Grandpa a couple of years ago for a little while. Due to the distance he lived from all his immediate family, visiting was difficult. But I'll never forget the month I stayed with him and how much he still loved to play cards. Still kicking butt with his favorite pastime, Rummy. "We'll see what happens next," is what he would say after every great move he played with the cards.

Well Grandpa, this is what happened next and I hope you are back with Grandma Shirley enjoying each other again!

*Always much love,
~Angela*
