“ Scotty was my Sgt. then Lieutenant during my many years as an officer with CPD. He was a smart and kind and gentle man. He was very encouraging and a great supporter of my work with K9 Vader. He even accepted a report that Vader chewed the edges off of and put a big middle paw print in the middle. There is a bare spot in the world.

“ Scotty and my late husband, Bill Mehrtens worked at the Sheriff's Dept. together, hung out together and played poker together. He was always such a kind, friendly person. I know it sounds cliché, but I was just thinking fondly about that Sunday poker group. You have my deepest, sincerest, condolences.
