“ Bobby Lee Ellis it's going on 5 months since you've been gone you're back home with your dad your mom and your brother and other relatives that have passed on. Bobby not a day goes by that we don't miss you bro. You're always funny to be around you were always entertaining and you were always a hard worker trying to make that extra dollar and you would always make it. Love you man miss you more than you'll ever understand. We have so many good times together when everybody used to go out to the bars. Till we meet again r. I. P. And heaven with your mom and dad and everybody else like I said. And your brothers up there with you
