“ She was a wonderful aunt. As young children she was really there for my brothers and me. She would just sit and listen and let you pour your heart out. Something I will never ever forget. She is at peace now. Love you, RIP.

“ I'm going to remember the good times we had with her. She made us laugh. She always called Nat and I her daughter's. She had many crazy stories. She was a force to be reckoned with. Tough as nails.

“ There is so much I could say about Aunt Mary... She never complained when I spent 3+ days at her house (although my parents would call up and say "send Jackie home") with Nat and Aleah and she definitely treated me like her own. I am so happy that I randomly ran into her back in August, it put my mind at peace that she was doing better.

“ Death is not the greatest loss in life. The greatest loss is what dies inside us while we live.
