“Sandy was such a pleasant person, I not only knew her as a friend, but I felt she was family. I met her when I was 16. I also worked with her in 1983 at Wal-Mart. One day in 1987, Frank and Sandy stopped by our house and they were on their way to South Carolina to visit their sons, Shane and Frankie Allen. They said come go with us, so Greg and I got a baby sitter packed and was on our way. Sandy and I sat in the back of a camero cramped up because Frank and Greg needed leg room. We had the best time. I am going to miss you Sandy, I know that you are with family and God has you under his wing. Love you
