“ Karma and Kim I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Sandy she is such a dear and true friend and we have shared such a beautiful friendship for so many years, eaten many meals at Donna's Tippy's and Cindy B's far too many count. I am so thankful that I stopped by to see her in Sept. when I was in So IL to attend a funeral of a member of my family. We had such a lovely but brief chat. I will miss her so much and just want you to know that I am caring and sharing my love, and sympathy. RIP dear friend----- Sandy is a part of my heart forever and I am a far richer person because the life of Sandy Baskin has touched my heart.

“ Hi,

Sandy and I used to spend time down at Hardees with other friends of hers. When I would be out at Cindy Bs. or Hardees with my mom she always would come over and give her a big hug and kiss on the cheek. She would always ask how we were both doing. She used to read our meter in town and was always nice. She will be missed by the Hardees Crowd and Cindy Bs.

Sorry to hear about her and my thoughts are with the family.
