“ Rosalind: Please accept my deepest sympathy on the death of your son. Having lost my own son almost 20 years ago, I think I might understand the crushing pain and heartache you feel over losing your precious son. I pray that God will give you comfort and the strength to carry on. I apologize for the intrusion into your personal life, but felt I had to tell you how sorry I was, and that you are in my prayers.

“ I know that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.
