“ Memories are too numerous to put pen to paper but a couple of ones that stand out are a trip to D.C., we saw a strawberry field and we stopped and picked a flat of strawberries. Sharon was dressed in white slacks picking strawberries which was probably hilarious to passersby but that night we ate that flat of strawberries with cool whip, that's a lot of strawberries! It was a fun trip. Another vacation trip was when my wife Nancy and I met Sharon and Leon at Mount Rushmore and Badlands of South Dakota. We had a good time being together on vacation. I hope you rest in peace and that the Lord brings peace and comfort to the family. Love, Sonny

“ Aunt Sharon had a contagious laugh, she was an avid pinochle player, a great cook and made many beautiful ceramic art pieces. May she rest in peace and May God bless and comfort the Strohmeier family at this difficult time. Love you all, Gail
