“ Stan was always such a wonderful person , always a smile on his face...I lived in olive branch a short time before I met Stanley and moved away in the 80's , visited often and whenever I would see Stan, he always made a point to say hello and ask how I was doing.....a man of little words but made a big impact in so many lives I'm sure...My condolences go out to his wife Becky ,his daughter and her mother, Carla....
