“ Sue was my best friend, although we were miles apart we talked weekly when I got married I moved to TN The last weekend we had, . the last weekend before her rehab I treated to Mexican food and she had saved a newspaper clipping for us to visit the Altenburg Luthern museum to see a small quilt show, she had chicken noodle soup followed by a cone of ice cream. I loved her dearly and despite being so sick we laughed. We sat and looked at her penny and quarter collection, which she was so proud of. We both collected pennies and her book was almost full. I wish I could take her one more time to the Grand Tetons .
