“ My mom was an amazing woman.... Very simple didn't want for much... Other than Persian pink lipstick, change for coca cola, and a couple dollars for the vending machines. Mom didn't have much but she had a heart of gold, a smile to light up a room, the most caring woman, and loved everybody no matter what.... My mom loved every single one of her brother and sisters and proud of was so proud of all of them. I know my mom is no longer suffering and she is no longer in pain struggling with her knees and every other ache and pain. My mom was a beautiful lady growing up she was the hot momma driving around in her 66 Chevy Malibu SS canary yellow as she would let everybody know.. I know it had been well over 30 years since mom had seen her son and I wish she could of seen him she loved him more than he will ever know. I will miss my moms 6 calls a day just asking what I was doing? That she played bingo for the day and couldn't wait and she hoped she would win that .50 cents lol then after bingo she would call to tell me if she had won or lost. 56 was way to young to be taken away. But losing my dad 25 years ago I'm sure she was read to see him and I'm sure dad had open arms waiting for her. Mom, I will always love you and I will always be your "Tuffy". Love your daughter always Amber Marie.....

“ As kids, I remember playing baseball, with all the kids, in Tammy's family yard. They were either over across the field at my house, or I was at their house. She was so athletic. She was a really fast runner. She was so pretty and tiny. My parents would take many of the kids to church, on Sunday. I'll remember her forever. She was a sweet kid. I didn't see anything of her after they moved away. God has you now, no more pain, no more sorrow. Hallelujah.
