“ I am so heart broken and for her family .
Her and her husband changed my life in 1975, just meeting her and Don changed my life for the good. They were loved by all my Family members, mother adopted them as her extra 2 children they became part of our family. Every family get together, Don and Vickie was invited. My marriage, 1993 Don was my husbands best man.
They just wasn't the best hair stylist in Southern Illinois, no they were just wonderful. Vickie loved everyone. She was so awesome.
Her and Don were a perfect example of how people should respect their spouse. I always took them Christmas cookies and meals when they couldn't make it by my house. I was over the road trucker. Sometimes I couldn't get back home for special occasions.
There Birthdays or Anniversaries. I was OTR TRUCKER, My job made me miss there special occasions. But Vickie always told me it was ok. Don knows that My husband and I are just hoping for Him to have peace and Everyday Don we will be thinking of you.
Hey hopefully I still have that wedding video.
You are welcome to come visit and see if my old stuff still works.
Vickie was just wonderful and brought us so much joy as you did.
But hey my Mother is in Heaven and will be waiting for her and meeting her again.
