

Viola Mae Miller

August 17, 1946 - July 24, 2012

Viola Miller, 65, of Murphysboro, Illinois, and formerly of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, passed away at 8:13 p.m. Tuesday, July 24, 2012, at the Shawnee Christian Friendship Care in Herrin, Illinois.

Gravesite services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, July 27, 2012, at the Blairsville Cemetery with Chester Wisely officiating. Memorials may be made to the family. For more information, please visit www.pettettfuneralhome.com.

Viola was born on August 17, 1946, in St. Louis, Missouri, to Henry "Peck" Holland and Anna (Qualls) Holland.

She worked at the Tuck Tape Factory in Carbondale, Illinois, where she met a young man named Oliver Miller, who instantly fell in love with her and married Vi, his blue eyed angel two months later in Bush, Illinois on September 23, 1966. Ten years later, she was a homemaker, wife and mother to their daughter Sharon.

Vi was an avid bingo player, where she loved to visit with her many friends, and you could find the two driving all over town in search of a good yard sale.

She is survived by her husband Oliver, daughter Sharon, and son in law Jason Partridge;

three grandsons Dalton Miller, Joshua Partridge, and Jayden Miller;

two sisters Janet Hall of Hurst, and Jackie Tweedy and her husband Carl Tweedy of Bush;

two brothers J. C Holland and his wife Peggy Holland and David Holland and his wife Sherry Holland, all of Bush, IL;

one brother in law Bill Miller of Murphysboro;

one sister in law Alice Goodnight of Murphysboro;

twenty three nieces and nephews, and countless great nieces and great nephews;

her "adopted" children, her girls Angie Keown, Karri Verbal, Elaine Brothers, Jennifer Stoops, JoAnne Schafer, and Brandi Pyatt, along with many, many "adopted" grandchildren, that she loved dearly; and her good friends, Jim and Marie Pyatt of Murphysboro and Marilyn Raglin of Oakridge, MO.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband's parents Oliver and Alma Imogene Miller, one sister Mary Baker, one brother in law Richard Goodnight, and one nephew John Pendall.
