Sometimes my heart feels like it is breaking into pieces. I know you are having a blast up in heaven. We think about you all the time. You would love Gabi and Adrianna. The family is doing good. If you could keep an extra eye on mom and Uncle Connie he lost his dog a couple days ago and is having a hard time with it and with mom she just not feeling the best. Tell grandma I miss her & her hot chocolate with cinnamon sticks & her milk shakes. But most of all I miss the way you looked at me when I walked into the room, you would raise your eyebrows and have a big smile the look on your face was of a mother who was so proud of the woman she raised, at that moment the connection between us was amazingly beautiful. If there was anyone in the room the great announcement would be then come “ This is my daughter” I’m so blessed and proud to call you my Mother, Love you mom. 🌹

“Went and visited your grave site on the one year anniversary of your passing. Frank and I planted a red rose bush in your honor and to celebrate the love for you. So much of you has been instilled in us that I can actually see your reflection beaming off of me in everything. I can't say it enough, you've were such a positive influence in my life and still continue to be, that in it's self amazes me. I love you mom.

She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly she loved me unconditionally. There are not enough words to describe just how important my Mother is to me and what a powerful influence she continues to be.

“ Thanksgiving is a week away, I can't believe it's going on a year that we left right after Thanksgiving last year to come to see you and get your Christmas decorations up for you. I really loved doing that for you every year, I don't know how I'm going to deal with that this year. I miss you so much already. I know God will get me through this and you. Love you 🥰

She was a kind and beautiful women, my grandmother whom treated me like her son. Well let's face it, I look exactly like her youngest son. I remember like it was just yesterday when we would sit in the living room making arts and crafts which was one of her favorite hobbies with me, she has always touched my heart and shown me how to be a respectable man. It's a tragedy that she has left us even though it seems brief I know she's in a better place I hold you near and dear to my heart my loving grandmother, you will always be within my heart and by my side. Love you mucho, grandma.

There are no words to express the kind of woman that Virginia Cano was. If anything , she was the pure definition of the word grandma meant. Though my time spend with her over the years we're brief she has left an imprint on my heart and soul of what it means to be a great person. This isn't goodbye grandma this is I'll see you again
