

Virginia Irene Miller

October 14, 1917 - May 7, 2018

Virginia Irene Miller, age 100, of Kalamazoo, MI, formerly of Ullin went home to be with her Lord on May 7, 2018.

Virginia was born October 14, 1917 in Dongola, Illinois, the daughter of William and Cora (Lingle) Mowery. On December 2, 1956, she was united in marriage to Bernoid L. Miller, living in Ullin, Illinois and raising their daughter.

Following the death of her husband in 1985, Virginia moved to where her daughter lived in Nevada and California. Then was brought to Kalamazoo area to live with her sister, Margaret Short, and was a Kalamazoo resident the past 25 years. She had attended the Berean Baptist Church in Portage, Michigan. Virginia enjoyed quilting, crocheting and she especially enjoyed winning bingo prizes. For the past 8 years, Virginia resided at the Upjohn Community Care Center.

Surviving are her daughter Kendra (Douglas) Anderson; grandchildren and great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by her parents and her siblings, Margaret Short, Minnie Mick and Louis Mowery; and two nephews, Robert Mowery and Carroll Dean Short.

There will be no public visitation or services. A private graveside will be held in Mt. Pisgah Church Cemetery in Wetaug, Illinois.

Memorials in Virginia's memory may be directed to the Upjohn Community Care Center in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Crain Funeral Home in Ullin is in charge of local arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Virginia Irene Miller

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM