“ Though I haven't had the personal memories that each of you now fondly cherish, I do remember some stories of her younger days. She seemed to have a zest for life and an independent fun-loving spirit. Her motorcycle riding days lingered happily in her memories. As she went on to serve her Lord, God's gentle touch shaped her and set a course that would lead her to this eternal home. I know you'll miss this one so dear. To us it seems that her sun has set, yet on yonder horizon it has only begun to shine. May God comfort each one of you and may your eternal hope be bright!
