“ Rick we were unable to attend the visitation services do to prior commitments. We wanted to express our condolence's to you and you're family for your loss and if there is anything we can do to help please let us know. I knew you're mom and dad for along time and they were both wonderful people. I guess that now they are both reunited again and are both Happy. I know it does not ease the pain a whole lot but we know they are in a better place now and we all know that they are up there because people of their make up can be no place else. Once again if you need anything including help with farm stuff don't hesitate to call.
