“ Willamae was always perfectly dressed, with her hair done and the house immaculate, which I thought was so amazing and cool as a young mom back then, because I was none of those things! She loved to sunbathe, and having everyone over to bbq and swim, even when we brought ALL the kids over and would be running around like crazy, she would laugh and deal with the chaos we caused. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ When I was little it always was a treat to stay with my grandmother. She loved to host and have great back yard pool parties with our family and friends. When I think of her I think of the sun, golfing, cooking, late night conversations and her beauty. I was always amazed how she had the perfect hair so she taught me how to tie my hair in a scarf at night before bed. She would often give us money so we could walk across the field to the mc donalds to get ice-cream cone which was super cool back then. When I became a teenager I would chuckle when she would always relate back to the Oprah Winfrey show she watched when it came to my teenage typical issues. I will miss her dearly and I will never forget her laughter and smile. I can only hope that I am half of the amazing and loving grandma that she was to me.

“ I am so sad to see this. I absolutely loved Willamae. She has been friends with my grandmother Edith Minckler for a very long time. I have many great memories that include Willamae. I will be thinking of you all. R.I.P. my friend.
