

William Joseph Gooden

April 10, 1938 - December 23, 2022

In Memory of:

William Joseph Gooden

William "Bill" Joseph Gooden, age 84, of Cairo, Illinois, passed away Friday, December 23, 2022, at his place of residence.

Bill was born April 10, 1938, in Cypress, Illinois, to William Thomas and Ada Belle (Snell) Gooden. He was married to the love of his life, Brenda (Solomon) Gooden, for 65 years.

A veteran of the United States Air Force, Bill served four years, then went on to own and operate B&B Salvage (later Midwest Company) in Cairo, Illinois; a one of a kind business for his area that he built from the ground up.

Bill was a long-time booster of the Cairo High School Boy's Basketball Program. His reverence for the game stretched decades. He will forever be remembered as a Pilot. He was an avid dresser who loved to travel. Another of his interests was fishing, his love for which was so great he often could be seen driving around with his boat loaded on a trailer- even when there was no fishing spot near!

Bill is survived by his wife Brenda, his daughters Janna (Melvin) Cornelius and Carrie Bridges; his siblings Jerry (Ellen) Gooden, Larry D. (Pat) Gooden and Tina Lowry; grandchildren Vichai "Joe" (Shataka) Jangjirawat, Glenn (Leah) Box, Kinley Box-Love, Jareb Box, Shaina (Ed) Glass, Devron (Winie) Bridges, Kevin Zweigert-Bridges, Anthony Bridges, Montez Bridges, Emmanuel Bridges, Harley Story and Russell Bridges; and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Oren "Scott" Gooden and his son-in-law Melvin Cornelius.

Graveside Services will be held at Mound City National Cemetery at 1:00 PM on Thursday, December 29, 2022. Friends are asked to gather at the Cemetery.

Crain Funeral Home in Cairo in charge of arrangements.
