“ I would just like to share my sympathies with Wonder's family. It is always hard to lose someone, especially someone so young.

I lost my father some time ago. One of the things that has helped me to cope is God's promise to raise our loved ones back to life on a Paradise Earth. One of my favorite scriptures is Hosea 13:14, which says, "From the power of the Grave I will redeem them; From death I will recover them. Where is your sting, O Death?"

I hope your family can find similar comfort in this difficult time.
