“ I first met Zachary when he was nine years old. His mother was homeschooling him and his two sisters Gabby and Hannah. We had lots of fun, homeschooling trips with our children, and Zachary was always very energetic.

Our hearts go out to you, Gabby and Hannah. You've been through so much, but remember God is faithful and he turns all things for good even when we don't see it or understand it.

“ Condolences to the family I knew Zach as a young man about 13 years old to be exact. He was a handsome you man with a great personality. Zach suffered a severe head injury during high school and was lucky to survive. Unfortunately this accident totally changed him and life became a challenge and struggle at times for Zach.

Zach was a son, brother and friends to many and will be missed Zachs wishes was to be laid to rest next to his grandparents who he loved dearly RIP my friend
